Carla Gray

Your wedding is a declaration to the world that your Love is both special and unique. It should reflect your tastes and sensibilities, as well as your beliefs.

Because I have resided in Idyllwild for almost 30 years, I know first-hand how very special our village is. From the moment you drive into town and pass beneath the pine branches, you feel your spirit open to the beauty and delight of Idyllwild. Let me show you the wonders of our mountain and facilitate your uniquely individual ceremony.

I perform non-denominational weddings, renewal of vows, blessings and memorials. Spiritual counseling is available if requested, as are photographic services.
